- The chart at the bottom of the page has been replaced with this chart:

Family Size (count unborn baby as one)	150% FPL	200% FPL	300% FPL
2	$1,751	$2,334	$3,501
3	$2,201	$2,934	$4,401
4	$2,651	$3,534	$5,301
5	$3,101	$4,134	$6,201
Each additional	+ $450	+ $600	+ $900

- The second section, “Who can get coverage?”, has been re-titled “Who is eligible for coverage?”
- Under “Who can get coverage?”, the third bullet point has been revised to read as follows: “Parents or relative caretakers of children under 19.” The rest of the phrase (“or of youth ages 18-21 who are exiting out-of-home care”) has been deleted.
- Under “Who can get covered?”, an additional bullet point has been added and reads: “Parents or relative caretakers whose children have been removed from the home and placed in out-of-home care.”
- The text of third section, “Are there income limits?”, has been deleted and replaced as follows: “There is no income limit for children under age 19, pregnant women, or youth exiting out-of-home care. There are various income limits for the other groups listed above. Eligibility categories are based on the Federal Poverty Level (FPL), which is determined using your monthly income (before taxes) and the number of people in your family.”

- The third paragraph (which begins: “In order to use ACCESS...”) has been revised to read: “You are not required to create an account in order to use ACCESS; however, it is useful to do so for several reasons. To create an account, simply follow the instructions on the ACCESS website. First, you will be asked to choose a user ID and password. This same ID and password can be used to enter ‘Check My Benefits’ and ‘Report My Changes.’ In addition, creating an account in ACCESS means that you do not have to complete the application in one sitting; you can save an incomplete application and finish it at a later date.”
- In the second sentence of the last paragraph, the word “in-person” has been deleted so that the end of the sentence reads: “...or require an interview for FoodShare.”
