Medicaid Threats & Medical Debt Symposium

Strategies. Stories. Solutions.

AGENDA

Thursday, March 27, 2025, 8:30am - noon Madison Central Public Library

 relied on by almost 1 in every 5 people in Wisconsin. Recent executive orders, budget proposals, and proposed rules could reduce access to card increased medical debt, uncompensated care, and worsened health. 9:10am-9:15am Patient Story -Confronting medical bills and debt. 9:15am-9:55am Elected Officials Panel – We welcome Rep. Lisa Subeck and County Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share the perspectives on current, proposed threats to Medicaid, medical debt realities for their constituents, and strategies to improve access to health for our loved ones, neighbors, and friends. Moderated by Brynne McBrid 9:55am-10:00am Patient Story -Confronting medical bills and debt. 10:00am-10:15am Short Break 10:15am-10:45am Assessing the Health Needs of the Community -Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicin talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report. 10:45am-11:15am Hospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health. 11:120am-11:55am Medical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategi	Registration Opens – light breakfast refreshments will be available.
 8:35am-9:10am Medicaid Under Threat – ABC for Health's Atty. Brynne McBride reviews potential threats to Medicaid & BadgerCare Plus, health coverage progra relied on by almost 1 in every 5 people in Wisconsin. Recent executive orders, budget proposals, and proposed rules could reduce access to carrincreased medical debt, uncompensated care, and worsened health. 9:10am-9:15am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. 9:15am-9:55am Elected Officials Panel – We welcome Rep. Lisa Subeck and County Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share the perspectives on current, proposed threats to Medicaid, medical debt realities for their constituents, and strategies to improve access to health for our loved ones, neighbors, and friends. Moderated by Brynne McBrid 9:55am-10:00am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. 10:00am-10:15am Short Break Assessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicint talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report. 10:45am-11:15am Hospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health. 11:20am-11:55am Medical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden potential threats to Medicaid & BadgerCare Plus, health coverage prograrelied on by almost 1 in every 5 people in Wisconsin. Recent executive orders, budget proposals, and proposed rules could reduce access to care increased medical debt, uncompensated care, and worsened health. 9:10am-9:15am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. 9:15am-9:55am Elected Officials Panel – We welcome Rep. Lisa Subeck and County Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share the perspectives on current, proposed threats to Medicaid, medical debt realities for their constituents, and strategies to improve access to health for our loved ones, neighbors, and friends. Moderated by Brynne McBrid 10:00am-10:15am 9:55am-10:00am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. 10:00am-10:15am Short Break 10:15am-10:45am Assessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicin talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report. 10:45am-11:15am Hospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health. 11:120am-11:55am Medical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Sp	Welcome & Introductions increased medical debt, uncompensated care, and worsened health. 9:10am-9:15am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. 9:15am-9:55am Elected Officials Panel – We welcome Rep. Lisa Subeck and County Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share the perspectives on current, proposed threats to Medicaid, medical debt realities for their constituents, and strategies to improve access to health for our loved ones, neighbors, and friends. Moderated by Brynne McBrid 9:55am-10:00am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. 10:00am-10:15am Assessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicint talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report. 10:45am-11:15am Hospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health. 11:20am-11:55am Medical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!	potential threats to Medicaid & BadgerCare Plus, health coverage program relied on by almost 1 in every 5 people in Wisconsin. Recent executive 9:10am-9:15amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.9:15am-9:55amElected Officials Panel – We welcome Rep. Lisa Subeck and County Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share the perspectives on current, proposed threats to Medicaid, medical debt realities for their constituents, and strategies to improve access to health for our loved ones, neighbors, and friends. Moderated by Brynne McBrid9:55am-10:00amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.10:00am-10:15amShort Break10:15am-10:45amAssessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicin talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report.10:45am-11:15amHospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health.11:120am-11:55amMedical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!
Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share the perspectives on current, proposed threats to Medicaid, medical debt realities for their constituents, and strategies to improve access to health for our loved ones, neighbors, and friends. Moderated by Brynne McBrid9:55am-10:00amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.10:00am-10:15amShort Break10:15am-10:45amAssessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicinic talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Petersom outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report.10:45am-11:15amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.11:15am-11:20amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.11:20am-11:55amMedical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!
9:55am-10:00amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.10:00am-10:15amShort Break10:15am-10:45amAssessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicini talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report.10:45am-11:15amHospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health.11:15am-11:20amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.11:20am-11:55amMedical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!	Executive Melissa Agard, elected officials from Dane County to share their
 10:15am-10:45am Assessing the Health Needs of the Community –Sheila Olk Martin, Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicini talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report. 10:45am-11:15am Hospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health. 11:15am-11:20am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. Medical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!
Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicinitalk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessmer (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report.10:45am-11:15amHospital Financial Assistance Policies & Practices – ABC seeks CHNA review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health.11:15am-11:20amPatient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.11:20am-11:55amMedical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!	Short Break review and process improvement to promote improved access to health care and improved community health. 11:15am-11:20am Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt. Medical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!	Specialty Care Free Clinic and Joanna Anderson, Madison Street Medicine talk about free and charitable clinics and the needs of the lowest income members of our community. Then, ABC for Health's Atty. Bobby Peterson outlines federal requirements of a "Community Health Needs Assessment" (CHNA). He highlights elements of ABC's recommendations for improvements in hospital collection practices and the need for better, proactive patient assistance in these challenging times. ABC for Health's Atty. Tim Hennigan shares specific examples from ABC's report.
11:20am-11:55amMedical Debt, Collections, & Credit Reporting of Debt: A Public Health Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!	review and process improvement to promote improved access to health
Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care covera and highlight our updated Fighting Forward Guide!	Patient Story –Confronting medical bills and debt.
	Crisis – Speakers identify the magnitude of the medical debt burden in Dane County, Wisconsin, and the nation. They review ideas to help our community address changing times and to promote proactive strategies to help patients avoid collections and connect to needed health care coverage
	Closing Comments
11.55am-12.00am

